

CANADA'S SIDE, ALASKAN BOUNDARY CASE.

Argument in Support of Contention Heard Before Commission This Morning.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—The Alaskan Boundary Commission reassembled at the Foreign Office today and the oral arguments began. Additional interest was lent to the proceedings by the statements attributed to some of the Canadians that their country would seriously resent an adverse decision. Nevertheless, only a few spectators, including the wife of the commissioner and a counsel were present, when Attorney General Finlay arose and commenced the presentation of the Canadian argument.

It was evident that the commissioners at first were not deeply interested in the attorney general's statement. Having considered all the documents in the case, the commissioners felt that they were familiar with these facts as any of the counsel. The arguments were more for the purpose of removing any doubts which counsel feel may exist in the minds of the members of the tribunal. The agents of the governments, however, sitting on either side of the blue-covered table behind which the commissioners sat and counsel occupying desks in the center of the chamber, followed the attorney general's address with the closest attention.

AMERICAN REPRESENTATIVES.

While Attorney General Finlay was speaking, Chief Justice Fuller, accompanied by Ambassador Choate, entered the chamber. They were conducted to a table directly facing the commissioners. The attorney general briefly described the historical aspect of the question and then the treaty under which the commission was appointed. He then presented the Canadian contention, each point of which has already been stated in the argument of Clifford Sifton, the Canadian Minister of the Interior and urged the commissioners to strictly confine themselves in considering the questions, to the terms of the controversy between Great Britain and Russia of 1825, and not to depart therefrom.

ANALYZING THE QUESTION.

The interest of the commissioners grew as Attorney General Finlay proceeded with his analytic study of the question. Speaking of the location of the line along the coast from the head of the Portland Channel as fixed by the treaty, the attorney general pointed out that the open United States coast survey in 1892 showed that the Washington Government had adopted the view that the line should follow "the general trend of the coast," which supports the Canadian contention.

Senator Turner at this point interrupted the speaker, saying that the report referred to the "trend of the general coast."

SUBTLE DISTINCTION.

Attorney General Finlay remarked that this was a "subtle distinction" and Chief Justice Alverstone ended the discussion with saying that it made little difference as it was "merely the direction of the surveyors."

IN FAVOR OF UNITED STATES.

Lord Alverstone's ruling was regarded by American counsel as being a point in favor of the United States.

The attorney general went on at such length that Lord Alverstone reminded him that the tribunal was familiar with the documents in the case and suggested that he simply cite the pages and volumes in which his references were found.

After luncheon Attorney General Finlay, who had previously laid much stress on the contention that the United States boundary line was drawn "in ostensible defiance of the treaty of 1825," resumed his argument.

The meeting adjourned shortly after 4 o'clock. Attorney General Finlay will tomorrow resume the presentation of the Canadian case.

BULGARIA APPEALS TO POWERS.

Shows That Porte's Purpose is to Cause War.

Turkish Treachery Shown Up in forcible Manner.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Sept. 15.—Following are some of the points in the note which Bulgaria has just presented to the Powers:

"What the Bulgarian Government had foreseen, as expressed in its note of June 29, of the development of affairs in Turkey, has become a reality. The Turkish Government is systematically annihilating the Bulgarian people."

FEAR OF ATTACK.

"The mobilization and concentration of such great forces in European Turkey, under the pretext of suppressing the revolution, gives Bulgaria reason to suppose that at an opportune moment she will be attacked by Turkey."

"The Bulgarian Government can no longer remain indifferent to the presence of such a situation, which is of a nature calculated to bring about a hostile collision between Turkey and Bulgaria."

POWERS TO ADVISE PORTE.

"If the great Powers do not take measures to give the sublime Porte counsel of wisdom and of moderation, the Bulgarian Government will be obliged to take the necessary steps to bring about a hostile collision between Turkey and Bulgaria."

FEAST OF THE CROSS.

The American Consul at Beirut telegraphed that the situation there is tranquil, although some fears are entertained of disturbances on the occasion of the feast of the cross.

The Consul adds that a good impression was created by Rear Admiral Cotton's conference with Nazim Pasha, the acting viceroy of Beirut, and the latter's repressive action, as were reported by Admiral Cotton to the authorities at Washington.

REASONS FOR BULGARIA'S NOTE.

SOFIA, Sept. 15.—Premier Petkov was interviewed today by the correspondent of the Associated Press on the reasons which induced the Bulgarian Government to issue yesterday's note to the powers. He said:

"I have been from the first plain-ly aware that the policy of Turkey was to hinder the development of the Bulgarian race in Macedonia, which was the strongest national element there. With this end in view, the Turkish Government devastated the country and killed the Bulgarian Christians, driving the survivors into the mountains and forests, where they would either perish of hunger or go across the Bulgarian frontier and become a burden to the Bulgarian nation. In the meantime, the powers paid not the slightest attention to the Bulgarian note of June 29, but rather encouraged the Turks, who adopted the most severe measures to suppress the outbreak."

"The Bulgarian Government is now compelled to protect not only Bulgaria itself, but also the Bulgarian element in Macedonia. It is further evident that

Chamberlain To Leave Cabinet if Views Are Not Accepted.

San Juan Hot-head is on the Way to His Punishment.

Postmaster General Does Not Answer the Subpoena.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—In anticipation of today's Cabinet meeting, spectators gathered early in Downing street, evidencing the suspense, which prevails in all quarters, and which has been heightened, if anything, since yesterday by the announcement of the question which is so seriously awaited.

The St. James Gazette says:

"We can confidently affirm that the final decision on the fiscal question was not arrived at yesterday. The discussion may or may not be resumed this afternoon, the meeting being called to discuss other matters, but we have no hesitation in saying that further consideration will take place before the government comes to a definite conclusion on the fiscal issue. If Mr. Chamberlain's proposals are not accepted he will resign his seat in the Cabinet."

The Cabinet met at 3 p. m., the sitting lasting until 4:30 o'clock.

Secretary Chamberlain entered the Foreign Office by a passage from the Colonial Office and consequently was not seen by the public, which today made no demonstrations.

Nothing definite has been said or heard regarding the Cabinet meeting. The ministers are leaving town and it is presumed that no more meetings will be held in the immediate future. The published statements both deny and aver that the fiscal question was discussed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Frederick Marriott's case, for damages against Truxton Beale and Thomas H. Williams, reached a point where the plaintiff rested his case. # MELLIN WILL NOT DISCUSS RESIGNATION

WARRANT COMES ARREST OF INSPECTOR ERWIN.

NO ARREST TILL TOMORROW.

It was decided to delay making the arrest until tomorrow. In the meantime, the attorney will prepare the papers upon which the defendant will be taken into custody and a warrant of removal providing for Erwin's transfer to Washington for trial in company with G. W. Beavers of the Salaries Department and August W. Machen, superintendent of the free delivery. The warrant was issued by Judge Harry M. Chubb of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

WATER FOR LANDS OF DESERT.

National Irrigation Congress Begins Business.

Large Attendance and Great Enthusiasm Chosen.

OGDEN, Utah, September 15.—With delegates present from all states west of the Mississippi, and representing practically every great commercial agency in semi-arid and arid regions of the country, the State and municipal governments, the eleventh session of the National Irrigation Congress opened here today. The sessions will continue until Friday and during that time much important action is expected to be taken looking toward the reclamation of the vast unsettled territories of the West that but await the touch of water to blossom and bear fruit. Not since the beginning of the movement looking toward Government aid in a vast scheme of irrigation the arid West has so much interest been taken in the subject of the irrigation Congress and during the four days' session, irrigation and its kindred subjects, forestry and colonization, will not only be discussed but practical illustrations of what irrigation is doing for the West will be given. Among the speakers will be United States Senators and Governors of half a dozen States of the West, Government experts in forestry and irrigation and representatives of many Western commercial organizations and colonization movements.

Delegates continue to pour into the city, every train arriving this morning bringing in hundreds interested in the work of the congress.

GETTING IN ORDER.

Although the first meeting was scheduled for 9:30 a. m., it was considerably beyond that time when President W. A. Clark ascended the platform of the Tabernacle, in which the meetings are to be held, and rapped for order. The venerable president, John R. Winder, one of the counsellors of President Joseph Smith, delivered a brief invocation, at the conclusion of which Mayor William Glassmann of Ogden was introduced and delivered an address of welcome on behalf of Utah, as follows:

MAYOR'S WELCOME.

"I congratulate you and the people of the arid sections of the United States in being able to convene in session during this congress and contemplate the enjoyment of the fruits of the unceasing toil and labor of eleven years in (Continued on Page 3.)

NOTES OF LABOR FROM THE MEN WHO TOIL.

Inquiry As to Act of Business Agent With Regard to Some Open Grocer Stores.

The retail clerks met last night in Fraternal Hall, initiated one new member and received applications from several more candidates for admission to the union. One member was fined for not marching in the Labor Day parade. The cases of several others, who also did not participate, was referred to a committee to investigate.

There was a long and heated discussion on the trouble caused by some of the grocery stores keeping open on the morning of Admission Day. A representative of the Oleson grocery store was present and stated the case of the proprietors. The non-union stores have kept open and the union clerks, though they ought not to lose trade by closing, so Business Agent Curran has given them permission to remain open until noon.

Some of the members expressed the opinion that the business agent had no authority to give this permission. It was defended by grocery clerks who said there was no time to call a meeting, as the matter did not come up until after the parade. No definite action was taken and the matter was laid over until another meeting.

BUTCHERS.

At the meeting of the butchers last night, two shops were taken of the unfair list, having signed the new agreement and promising to abide by the rules. Five new members were initiated into the union and ten applications were placed on file. State Organizer Wheeler, of the American Federation of Labor, was present and addressed the gathering. The secretary reported that four members had absented themselves from the Labor Day parade. The matter was referred to the Executive Committee.

COOKS AND WAITERS TODAY.

The regular meeting of the Cooks and Waiters' Union is being held this afternoon in their headquarters on Eighth and Broadway. The barkeepers will meet at the same place this evening.

BOOT AND SHOE WORKERS.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' Union met last night in Cooks and Waiters' headquarters and settled up the business connected with the Labor Day parade.

TEAMSTERS.

Local Union No. 71, Brotherhood of Teamsters, held a largely attended meeting last night at the headquarters on Webster street. Six new members were taken in and applications were received from 25 more candidates. Ten members were fined $5 each for not marching in the Labor Day parade. Ex-Brother George Benson, blacksmith for the People's Express Company, was donated $25 for helping to build the union's float for the Labor Day parade. Resolutions were adopted thanking the People's Express Company and the Howe, Winchester Company for lending the horses and wagons used in the parade. A collection of $7 was taken up for a sick member.

RECEPTION TO MACHINIST.

Last night in Machinists' Hall, 1159 Mission street, San Francisco, a reception was tendered Fourth National Vice President Thomas J. Ryan. The affair was under the immediate supervision of the San Francisco Local Union No. 66. A number of Oakland machinists attended the reception. Mr. Wilson has proved himself a strong friend to unionism by the advice he did when acting as an adviser during the machinists' strike on the Union Pacific. His stay on the Pacific coast will be of some length, and his time will be spent in work for the interests of the various machinists' unions in the West.

RANDBURG MINERS.

Stationed in San Francisco and representing the Randburg Miners' Union, is a committee of three to caution local employment agents against sending men to work in the Randburg mines, as the miners there are on a strike for better conditions.

LABOR BALL.

All arrangements have been completed for the ball in Native Sons' Hall next Saturday evening. The decorations are elaborate and everything points to the success of the affair. The purpose of which is to announce the winners of the Labor Day picnic athletic events, and to distribute the prizes for them.

LINEMEN.

A delegation of the striking linemen attended the meeting of the Town Trustees last night and went away greatly pleased because the request of the telephone company that their employees be appointed deputies was refused.

The matter was referred to the Town Marshal, who was empowered to appoint three deputies to protect the non-union workmen. The clerk was instructed to write the Marshal, who is away on a fortnight's vacation. The strikers are confident he will make an appointment, as he refused to once before.

The following letter has been received at the headquarters of the linemen in regard to the telephone strike situation:

"Several of the secretaries of the linemen were elected delegates to the international convention and new secretaries appointed to fill their places.

"We are not receiving the daily reports regularly and it is impossible to get out our report without them. Please consider this and send in a good report from which we can make out an interesting account. We endeavor to get out a report every day as the locals all look for it.

"Besides the locals we mail the report to over 500 members throughout the country who are interested in the strike and anxious to hear the news.

"Portland and Chicago have no change in last report, everything is 'fine and dandy.' None have lost heart since the men left the ranks. We have got a good, strong crowd of boys there now. Oakland reports no change in the situation; no new men are going to work. Not one man has deserted the ranks since the strike started. San Francisco reports no change. The men are all standing firm and have not lost a man. The pickets did good work last week, got ten men to quit work.

"A report from a member of Sacramento Local Union, No. 36, says no new men are going to work and strikers standing firm. The boycott is being worked with good effect. Sacramento can stay out forever as the men on strike have secured other employment. San Bernardino reports no change in that part of the State—no new men working since last report. Telephone work is at a standstill. The unfair men cannot keep the trouble cleared up. They can hold out till the end. The Western Conference has no

WALKIREZ USELESS TO END IN PRISON.

Court Disregards Statement of the Murderer and Sends Him to San Quentin.

VICTOR WALKIREZ, MURDERER.

The above is a picture of Victor Walkirez, the eye slaver who shot Elizabeth Leroy, as he appeared when spending in profligacy the money he had stolen his victim to secure.

Victor Walkirez was this morning sentenced to spend the rest of his natural life in the State's prison at San Quentin for the murder of Elizabeth Leroy, of which crime he was convicted by a jury last Saturday.

Walkirez showed little emotion and, according to some of those who were observing of him, he had a fit of disgust on.

HAD BIG CROWD OF SPECTATORS.

The ceremonies attending his final appearance in court were simple and short. The courtroom was crowded with spectators, some of them hurrying awaiting to be called in other cases. Walkirez had been brought in and sat some time awaiting the appearance of Judge Ellisworth. As soon as the judge had taken the bench, opening his calendar he asked if there were any ex-parte matters. There being no response, he then read:

WALKIREZ CALLED.
"The People of the State of California against Victor Walkirez."
Walkirez with his attorney, Thomas

Pearson walked up to the table in front of his Honor and the following dialogue took place:

"Have you any reason why the sentence of this court should not be passed upon you?"

MEMORY BLEACHED OUT.
"I would like to say that I don't remember doing what I say I did and I do not believe I did it," answered the prisoner in a weak voice.

WALKIREZ STORY DISBELIEVED.

"Is that all? For I am, all that I have got to say is that I do not believe a word of your story and I do not care to say any more about it."

Turning to the indictment, the Judge then read, "Victor Walkirez, you have been charged by the District Attorney with the murder of Elizabeth Leroy, a human being, on the fourth day of March last."

He then read from the penal code: "A jury has found you guilty of murder and fixed the penalty at death (correcting himself) life imprisonment."

MURDERER'S DOOM SEALED.

"By the power conferred upon me, I hereby sentence you to the State's prison at San Quentin for the period of your natural life. You are remanded into the custody of the sheriff."

Attorneys Frank H. Ford and Thomas Pearson wish the statement denied that Walkirez assigned over to them for several months, a prospective pension, which it is alleged is due him from the Government for his defense of him during his recent trial. To do so, they say would render them liable to be indicted by the Federal Grand Jury and they know the law too well to do that.

ANOTHER MEETING ON RAILROAD.

ALAMEDANS HERETOFORE SILENT WILL NOW BE HEARD ON SUBJECT.

The fight over the granting of a franchise to the Southern Pacific Railroad in Alameda is to be brought to the attention of President H. Kruttschnitt, who has been summoned to New York and who will meet in principle about the end of this week.

The result of the conference will be awaited with interest, for it is expected to determine finally the company's attitude in the matter of the franchise.

Southern Pacific officials say that General Manager Kruttschnitt acted with authority when he proclaimed the company's ultimatum in regard to the tenure of the franchise demanded by the company, coupled with the threat to tear up the company's tracks and deprive the town of railway communication if the franchisees were not renewed on the terms insisted upon by Kruttschnitt. The company's attitude is always subject to modification and revision by the president and directors. It is thought in local railway circles that at the approaching conference Kruttschnitt will be authorized to treat with the people of Alameda as occasion demands.

Southern Pacific officials express the belief, however, that the company will obtain the franchise it wants and on terms satisfactory to the company. As matters stand, General Manager Kruttschnitt has agreed to accept franchisees good only for the period of the corporate life of the Central Pacific and Southern Pacific Coast railway companies, which would be forty-four years in the one case and thirty-three years in the other. Some of the people of Alameda object to these terms and are hopeful that the injunction against the Trustees, which is to come up for hearing early next month, will be made permanent until the wishes of the voters on the question can be determined at the polls.

RINGLINGS' SHOW VERY FINE BILL IN ALAMEDA. OUTLINED.

IMMENSE CROWD AT MATINEE—ANOTHER PERFORMANCE THIS EVENING.

It is a good wager that a large percentage of the population of Oakland will be missing from their usual haunts this evening because the great Ringlings Circus will surely draw large crowds from this city to Alameda. The large canvases will be located adjacent to the trolley line and the Oakland Transit company will furnish special cars for the accommodation of the public.

Since exhibiting here Saturday a week ago, the Ringlings' World's Greatest Shows have been open daily in San Francisco at Eleventh and Market streets and closed their record-breaking engagement last night. The eighty-five cars were again loaded with circus paraphernalia and the aggregation proceeded to Alameda to give its final two exhibitions in this vicinity. Small wonder indeed that the Ringlings Brothers are successful showmen. They present far more than they advertise and never overcharge their patrons. In fact, in no exhibition on earth can so much amusement and instruction be gained as in the World's Greatest Shows. Tonight will indeed be a red letter night in Alameda. At the performance this afternoon the tents were crowded and the sale of seats for tonight are enormous.

EX-JOCKEY IS BEING TRIED.

The trial of Richard Ward, the ex-jockey, accused with assault with a deadly weapon upon Constable "Terrible" Brown at Emeryville, was begun this morning before Judge Ellisworth. Ward is represented by Attorneys W. M. Barnes of San Francisco and T. M. Bradley of this city, while the case for the People will be looked after by Deputy District Attorney Phil Walsh.

Ward is accused of having raised a disturbance in a saloon at Emeryville and when he was ejected by the constable, attacked him with a knife. Ward, it is said, would not stop fighting and was terribly beaten by the officer and lay for several days without giving much signs of life.

ATTRACTIONS AT IDORA PARK GREATLY PLEASE THE PUBLIC.

A galaxy of stars are entertaining the crowds at Idora Park this week and Manager Mackinnon is to be congratulated on his taste in selecting them. Lorraine and Hoy and their two trained dogs are worthy of special mention. Their act is clever, novel and original and the audience last night was delighted with their performance.

La Petite Arle created quite a sensation. She is pretty and charming and possesses a well-trained voice of rare quality. The great De Arino does an aerial act which has never been equaled in this section of the country. His thrilling performance in mid-air keeps his audience spell-bound.

Harry Howard, the monologue comedian, is a special feature on the bill. His jokes, songs, gags, etc., are just what the public wants and his audience is kept constantly laughing.

The Burroughs' comedy sketch team is thoroughly entertaining. They have certainly made a hit with Idora Park visitors and it is safe to say will repeat a success throughout the week.

Harry Sylvester, the popular baritone, is still in favor with his illustrated songs.

All the out-door attractions were well patronized and enjoyed. There is a matinee every afternoon except Monday, Friday nights are devoted to amusements.

WOOD HID KEYS IN MOUTH.

Wily Scoundrel Sought to Overpower Officers.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 15.—The Reno, Nevada officials who brought Convicts Wood and Murphy to the Prison, returned today and will remain in this city to await the action of the State Board of Examiners on their claims for the reward for the capture of the two escaped prisoners.

It develops that Wood had secreted in his mouth several small keys for handcuffs none of which, however, looked to the cuffs which fastened the wrists of the prisoners and would not open them.

He told the officers that it was his intention to open the cuffs, overpower them and escape. But as each of the convicts was handcuffed by a fifty-pound Oregon boat, which they could not remove, Wood was unable to make it clear how he and Murphy could get away. It is believed Wood had the keys secreted in his mouth ever since his capture.

ALARM WIRES ARE BURNED.

Just at present this city is in a bad condition so far as protection from fire is concerned. About 4 o'clock this morning a highly charged wire fell across a wire of the fire alarm and telephone system and caused damage estimated at any where from $500 to $3,000, it being impossible at this time to definitely fix it. The wires were burned out in the fire department building, together with all the cables connected there. This took place at the houses of Engines 4 and 5, and out of business as well as a relay at Engine House No. 4, and two at the headquarters building. The police telephone system is also badly injured. A number of the circuits being put out of commission.

Electrician Babcock has been out all day endeavoring to locate the place where the wires are crossed and finding the kind of one that has done the damage. But has not located the difficulty yet. He is in East Oakland this afternoon.

A wire running into the residence of Peter Fonte of East Oakland, an extraordinary fire to his building at an early hour this morning, but the flames were extinguished before serious damage was done. Fonte attempted to communicate with headquarters, but was unable to do so because of the general paralysis of the system.

WANT RUBBISH CANS.

A number of applications have been received from different sections of the city for the location in the localities named of one or more of the rubbish cans provided for by Councilman Cuyler's recently approved ordinance, and it is evident that all the people do not fully understand the use these cans are intended for. They are not for garbage receptacles, but simply for the deposit of such light stuff as pedestrians and others are accustomed to throw upon and litter the streets with, such as paper, candy peel and the like, and it was not intended that the city should go into the wholesale removal of the garbage of its inhabitants or provide receptacles therefor.

CORONER'S JURY REPORTS.

The coroner's jury in the inquest held last night upon the body of Mrs. Carrie Johnson of 71 Pearl street, the woman who died on an Oakland avenue car on Saturday, brought a verdict of death from violent affection of the heart.

BECAME A CATHOLIC.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—The Rev. Robert Benson, son of the late Archbishop of Canterbury, who died in 1885, has been received into the Roman Catholic Church.

Pepper is so common in ginger, you may not know the taste of pure ginger. The same is even more true of pepper-mint.

Schilling's Best everything pure.

At your grocer's; money back.

MISS TODD LEAVES OFFICE.

Denies She Used Place for Political Purposes.

WILMINGTON, Del., September 15.—Miss Huldah B. Todd, postmistress at Greenwood, Del., whose removal from office by the Postmaster-General because she was obnoxious to United States Senator Allee, attracted the attention of the entire country, has given up the disputed office to Jacob L. Houseman, who was appointed her successor.

Miss Todd got out quietly after obtaining four per cent from Houseman that would release her and her bondsman. She was indignant however, when asked about the statement from Washington that the postoffice was used as a meeting place for the factional Republican opponents of J. Edward Addicks and the Union Republican party and that she had annoyed Union Republicans when they came to the office on business. Miss Todd said:

"I have treated all patrons of the office with courtesy. Whether they were Republicans, Union Republicans or Democrats made no difference to me."

WATER FOR LANDS OF DESERT

behalf of the irrigation in the United States.

"For eleven years the irrigators of this country have met year after year with one great object in view—to secure national aid. Everlastingly keeping at it has caused this Government, under the leadership of President Roosevelt, to grant us several million dollars annually. The most ardent irrigator could not ask for a more liberal appropriation."

NEED FOR CONGRESS.

"A prominent Eastern newspaper has asked the question, 'What is the need of any more irrigation congresses now that the Government has set aside the receipts of the public lands for the reclamation of the arid West?' I want to say there is more need for an irrigation congress today and in the future than there ever was. True, you have the money appropriated by the Government but you have the privilege and the duty of this congress to see that this money is properly used and not misappropriated or wasted. You have greater work before you at this session than at any time during the eleven years' history of the irrigation Congress. You must be able to provide a plan for the expenditure of the millions of dollars set aside for our cause which will meet the approval of the Secretary of the Interior and the National Congress."

SALE OF RECLAIMED LANDS.

"It will be your privilege to adopt a system for the sale of the reclaimed lands that will meet the approval of the American people—a system that will be a blessing to the genuine settlers. It must be as meritorious, it must be the famous homestead law signed by that greatest of modern Americans, Abraham Lincoln."

"As your host for the next four days, I extend to you every hospitality the city affords. I welcome you on behalf of the good men and women of Ogden and extend to you every courtesy and our hospitality. Accept it, partake of it, and be one of us while you are here."

CONVICT CAUGHT IN HAYWARDS

JOHN LAVIN AN OFFENDER IS ON THE ROAD AGAIN TO THE "PEN."

HAYWARDS, September 15.—John Lavin, an old convict of many years behind the bars was arrested here last night for robbing the room of a man named Madison who occupies quarters in Alsin's saloon. When arrested, on him were found a number of articles which had been missed by other residents of the city. These goods were identified and proof of the fact was brought against Lavin when he was brought before Justice Prowse this morning. There is no doubt that Lavin will again take a trip over the road to the penitentiary. His hearing will come up later.

FREIGHT TRAIN OFF THE TRACK.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 15.—Four cars of a freight train were derailed last night near Caporn Station, six miles east of Colfax on the Central Pacific road. The track was torn up for some distance and traffic was delayed for several hours. All trains are running on time today.

CORRECTION MADE.

An error was inadvertently made when it was announced that Willie Jacobs, a representative of the Newsboys' Union tried to interfere with Willie Ambrose while selling papers. Jacobs boarded a car and asked the conductor for his number, which he refused to give. Then Ambrose pulled him from the car. The matter was, however, amicably adjusted. Ambrose withdrawing the charge. The entire case was dismissed.

SECRET OF THE BEACH.

Supposed Finding of Remains of Miss Page.

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., Sept. 15.—The body of Miss Page, who disappeared from San Jose on Sunday night, is supposed to have been located near Cliff Drive this morning. A launch is now searching for it.

AGENT WENT TO NEW YORK

and allowance department, Postoffice Department was told, the Postmaster General has designated Postoffice Inspector Lawrence Lethman as his representative at that hearing. The opinion of Mr. Hoyt follows:

A REPRESENTATIVE.

"My advice to the Postmaster General is that, while I do not think on fundamental grounds, under all the circumstances, at the case, the United States Commissioner had any warrant in law for issuing this writ, to be served outside of his district. On the whole, I believe the proper course for the Postmaster General to pursue is to send a trusted employee of the department to New York to represent him in the matter, to appear before the commissioner tomorrow morning at the appointed hour, in company with the United States Attorney and to state formally to the commissioner (it called upon) on behalf of the Postmaster General, that the Postmaster General declines to reproduce any Government records and documents called for whatsoever."

COULDN'T COMPLY.

Postmaster-General Payne said today that it was a physical impossibility to comply with the subpoena in any case from the law in the case. The subpoena, he pointed out, called for papers, documents and records, covering years of operations of the department to be produced before the United States Commissioner. These papers are in constant use in the department with the investigation of the postal service and are scattered throughout the country in the hands of the inspectors.

Charles H. Robb, the assistant Attorney-General of the Postoffice Department, has decided to continue permanently in that office, instead of returning to his former position in the Department of Justice, at the completion of his postmaster-generalship. Postmaster-General Payne admitted that the resignation of George Christy, the former law clerk of the department, was submitted some weeks ago, but that action upon it had been deferred, pending the investigation of the affairs of that office.

The Federal Grand Jury resumed its investigations today but did not report any indictments. One of the first indictments is supposed to be that of one of the former law officials of the department. The report of First Assistant Postmaster-General Bristow on the investigation will, according to reports will follow within a fortnight of the return of the law indictment.

FUNERAL OF DR. W. H. BLOOD.

The funeral of Dr. W. H. Blood, well known physician of this city, took place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Private funeral ceremonies were held at the home of the deceased, after which the remains were borne to a Catholic Masonic Hall on Pearl street where the Masonic ritual was read in very affecting manner. The remains were incinerated in the Oakland Crematorium, to which place they were accompanied by a large number of mourning friends.

WHY ROCKRIDGE PARK IS SO ATTRACTIVE.

Peculiar Advantages it Has As a Site for the New Golf Club.

As it is proposed to change the location of the site of the club house and grounds, of the recently organized Claremont Country Club from Claremont to the tract known as Rockridge Park the propriety of changing the name to fit the surroundings is suggesting itself. The same Claremont grew out of the location originally selected.

As the proposed new site is a secluded vale behind and adjoining Mountain View cemetery, it is suggested that the name of the club be changed from Claremont to Cemetery. As it is proposed to make golf the chief feature of amusement, many think the word Golf should be substituted for Country.

It is argued that Cemetery Golf Club would be descriptive of the familiar scenes amid which the members will take their recreation, and will at the same time denote the chief diversion of the club.

The groves of eucalyptus which constitute the immediate foreground of the club house on the proposed new site has suggested the idea of calling the club the Eucalyptus or the Gum Tree Club. But the prominence of Mountain View which flanks and overlooks Rockridge Park makes a pre-eminent feature of the landscape. Its terraced slopes, studded with gleaming white grave stones amid shrubbery and flowers, overshadows every other surrounding.

The cemetery constitutes one of the chief attractions of the proposed site. It lies just across the fence from the club grounds, and furnishes a contrast that is full of pious and pathetic suggestion. In their gay revels the club members can always be in sight of the tombs of their departed kindred. They can tell at a glance whether the graves of their relatives and friends are kept green. When gaiety threatens to go beyond the bounds of good taste and decorum, the club members will have before them in the visible abodes of the dead a perpetual reminder that all must die.

Amid the sparkle of wine, the flash of wit, the bubble of laughter and the merry clinking of glasses, the revelers can see from the widows and verandas of the club house the monuments and the crosses pointing the way to eternal life and the end of all earthly existence. Thus the gay will realize how much better it is to be alive than dead, and they will have brought home to them a realization of the rewards that await the virtuous and the punishments that are visited on the wicked.

While playing golf they can hear the hills, the dim religious light falling on the tombs, urns and fading flowers where earnest robbing mourners gathered around the dead, will cause a soft melancholy to steal in the souls of the club members and inspire them with a passionate love for a spot so full of romance and tender memories.

Then the tall stack of the crematory, on the hill, lifts its crest over the club grounds to teach its lesson and enforce its moral. When some sinner's bones are heaping the fierce fires that are destined to torture the departed soul, the golf players at the club can tell by the curling smoke that drifts over toward the hills what is going on. They can realize how much nicer it is to be playing golf than it is to be roasting in a crematory.

But these are not all the attractions and advantages of the proposed new site. The road leading to the grounds passes a quarry, in which a body of blasters are kept busy breaking up stone. A party driving in will be saluted by a blast precisely as if the admiral of a fleet were entering a foreign harbor. There is a fascination in the idea of an explosion occurring at the moment a golf player makes a foolie. Even the humblest club member can have the honor of a salute. Only the horses will be frightened; the real, up-to-date people use automobiles. And the reverberating echoes of the blasts will break the silent melancholy that the presence of the dead superinduces.

At the Claremont grounds only the bay, the islands, the Golden Gate, and the cities of Oakland and San Francisco greet the eye. The beauties of Mountain View Cemetery are all hidden from view. Even the quarry salutes to the passing club members are lacking. Comparison is out of the question. It is invidious, ridiculous.

SHOULD IMPROVE LOT.

Mrs. H. M. Burnham of 1705 Broadway has written the Mayor, suggesting that, in line with his idea for the general beautifying of the city, it would be a good plan to purchase and improve as a park the lot at Twenty-fourth street and Broadway, and think the women

In that section would be glad to do what they could to help in making it an attractive spot. At present it is a catch for all refuse and an eyesore to property-holders in the neighborhood.

HOOF BEATS OF MADE TARGETS OF BURGLARS.

OAKLAND ELKS TO OPEN NEW CORRAL WITH ANTLERS FROM ABROAD.

Saturday evening, September 13, is the date chosen by the Oakland Elks to formally dedicate their spacious new home on Fourteenth and Franklin streets, the building and furnishing of which they have lately accomplished at an expense up in the thousands.

The occasion, which is to be purely a lodge affair, will be under the direct supervision of an executive committee of five lodge members, namely: Chairman A. McDonald, Dr. W. Halsey, J. Seuberg, W. Pelton and J. M. Stanley.

On Saturday evening only the Oakland Elks and an expected large delegation from lodges throughout the State will be present.

However, within three weeks or so there is a probability that an evening will be devoted to a reception to which the Elks' friends and the ladies will be bidden to visit and inspect the new quarters.

The dedication ceremony will be conducted in the regular ritual form by Grand Esquire T. Dunn of San Francisco and the grand officers.

After the dedication ceremonies there will be held a social session for the entertainment of the visiting brothers. The particulars of this social session are kept darkly secret. Nevertheless, it is safe to venture the assertion that the visiting brothers will find the entertainment eminently sufficient in every particular.

To meet incoming trains and to escort their visitors to the hall with all due pomp and ceremony and to see that their every need and wish is well supplied, a large and capable committee has been appointed.

Burglars attempted last night to enter the residence of Mrs. S. F. Woodbridge, 1529 Twenty-second avenue, but their efforts were frustrated by the timely action of Al Brown, a nephew of Mrs. Woodbridge's, who is spending the season with their aunt in Oakland. It was between 10 and 11 o'clock last night and shortly after the family had retired that Mr. Brown remarked to his wife that he heard an unusual noise in the basement. Next he knew strange sounds proceeded from the rear door of the residence, whereupon he proceeded thither with revolver in hand, opened the door quickly and gave pursuit.

The burglars were swift of foot, and Mr. Brown, who is somewhat of a sprinter, found more than a match in the fleetness of the robbers.

The pursuer fired two shots as he ran at the fleeing outlaws, but does not think the bullets went true to the mark, and accordingly the burglars escaped.

Mrs. Woodbridge says that there is no officer detailed to service in that locality and insists that there ought to be at least one policeman stationed thereabouts.

ABUSED MAILS IN RIPON

STOCKTON, Cal., Sept. 15.—Vernon L. Ogden, a school teacher at Ripon, in this county, has been arrested by United States Marshal Moran for sending scurrilous matter through the mails.

Ogden has been released upon giving $500 bail. He sent a postal card to S. B. Kennedy, a former trustee of the school taught by Vernon, in which the initials of Kennedy were made to appear as a vile epithet.

The trouble between the two men dates back two years, when Kennedy voted against Vernon for a second term as teacher. The postal card was sent a few days ago.

IS PRESIDENT OF CLUB.

Mr. Flanigan is the president of the Sequoia Athletic Club, which is to give an amateur boxing entertainment this evening, and is one of the hardest workers for the success of the club. Under his able direction the club now enjoys a large membership and is in a flourishing condition.

OTTIS AND FULLER TO MEET.

THEY ARE SIGNED FOR DOUBLE EVENT ON SEPTEMBER TWENTY-NINTH.

Morris Levy, one of the promoters of the Hayes Valley Athletic Club, has despatched of securing Griffin and Johnson for fifteen-round contest and has signed Billy Ottis and George Fuller instead. These fighters will meet on September 19th and will battle fifteen rounds. Billy Ottis fought Toby Irwin before the Reliance Club of this city last month and was given the decision after nine rounds of the hardest kind of fighting. Irwin was forced to give up on account of a broken jaw. Ottis is clever and should give Fuller a good fight.

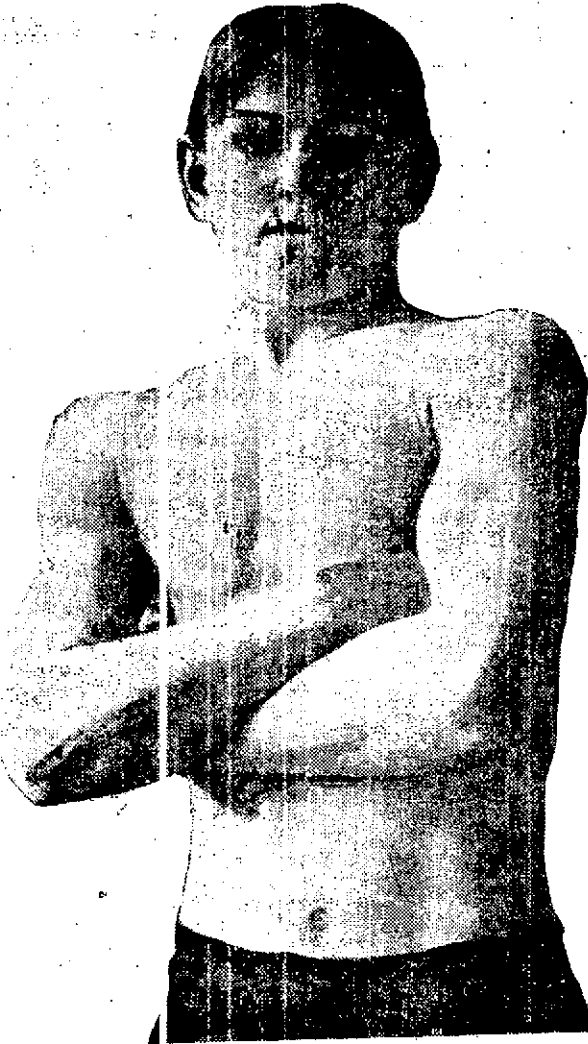

Fuller is a light weight and in his match with Ottis, will give away several pounds. He trained Britt for his last match with O'Keefe, which fell through on account of the latter's inability to make the weight. Fuller made good showing against Britt in their practice bouts and demonstrated the fact that he can go some.

Fuller will challenge the winner of the Cordell-Angelli fight for a contest at 135 pounds ringside or at 6 o'clock. He is confident that he will beat Ottis and can do the same to either Cordell or Angelli. He has good backing and wants to meet the winner before the club offering the best inducements and for a side bet.

APPOINTED GENERAL MANAGER: CHICAGO, September 15.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Louisville, Ky., says:

D. Augustus Hone, a nephew of Augustus Belmont, who for some time has been a mechanic in the service of the Louisville and Nashville railroad here, has resigned his position to become the general manager of the Louisville and Atlantic Railroad, a line running from Versailles to Irvine, Ky., a distance of ninety miles. Hone is a wealthy and capable man from New York, and has a practical side of railroad. He is an expert mechanic and is said to have acquired a wide knowledge of the railroad business. He is 28 years of age.

WILL MEET SWEETMAN.

Dick Cullen is one of the cleverest amateur bantams on the Pacific Coast, and he will box four rounds with Joe Sweetman before the Sequoia Athletic Club for the 115-pound championship of the coast. Cullen hails from Melrose and can box with the best of them.

LOCALS TO PLAY IN SOUTH.

Recruits journey to Los Angeles—Senators and Frisco.

Yesterday was the first time this year the bleachers saw a real live scrimmage on the football field. The crowd on the bleachers was moderately large, but it was woefully lacking in the production of noise. Phil Carey had the rosters in charge. He announced early in the afternoon that Nate Eddy, 65, had been appointed assistant yell leader.

After practicing formations a short while the Varsity and second eleven amid the proper cheers, lined up against each other. The second eleven kicked off, and Bolnap ran in ten yards. The second eleven were tried and found impossible, and in the fourth play, Overall kicked.

Both ways on the receiving end and ran in about ten yards when he was downed by Bolnap. Snedgorn, a few plays after, carried the pigskin about twenty-five yards around the left end. The second team was forced to punt and Bolnap ran it into the Varsity 35 yard line.

After Geary went in at quarter and Risley and Boynton at left-half and right respectively, the Varsity played straight down to a touchdown. Risley bucking between right guard and tackle for the five points. No goal.

The play lasted twenty minutes in all. No exceptional playing came to light, and even for the first time of the season it was rather slow. The men lacking in spirit and dash. The field may have had something to do with it as the dust choked the players and hid them from the spectators.

The Varsity lined up as follows: center, Stroud; left-guard, Stow; left tackle, Howard; left-end, Dimeritt; right-guard, Overall; right-tackle, Force; right-end, Craig; quarter, Belknap and Geary; right-half, Whipple; left-half, Graves and Risley; full-back, Starn and Boynton.

After the big fellows left the field the freshmen lined up against each other for about half an hour. Neither team could do much with the other. Fumbles were too plentiful and much hard work will have to be done before a team that the college can place any confidence in, can be developed that will stand much show against the Stanford freshmen.

MINISTERS WILL HELP MACEDONIA.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Protestant ministers of Chicago, meeting at the Young Men's Christian Association building, have agreed to aid the Macedonian relief fund, and approved the work of the Macedonian committee. The delegation from the clergy was composed of representatives of the Methodist, Episcopal, Baptist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches.

The clergymen will describe the Macedonian situation in the churches, but will contribute nothing to the fund for the Macedonian army.

Meanwhile natives of Macedonia are enlisting in the regular Macedonian army by the Boris Stanislas Tsvetkov. The recruits number seventy. G. M. Tsilka, husband of the missionary held in captivity with Ellen Stone, has offered his services.

The Macedonian committee has issued an appeal for financial aid.

Tonight Sam McVey, the Oxnard giant, and Devere Ed Martin meet in a twenty-round contest before the Century Athletic Club of Los Angeles for the privilege of meeting Jack Johnson for the colored heavy-weight championship of the world. The fight scheduled for tonight has attracted considerable interest in the southern part of the State and McVey is picked by the talent to win.

McVey weighs about 215 pounds, while Martin will have all he can do to tip the beam at an even 200 pounds. Both have been training for the meeting for some time and the fight will probably be a good one. Johnson has a decision over both of the fighters but it was secured when they were young in the game. They claim that he cannot duplicate it at this date.

Johnson is anxious to meet the winner of the fight and he will probably have his wish gratified. The Colma Athletic Club will probably match them for an October or November date.

HERE TO BOOST THE MEET.

J. W. Brooks after entries for Los Angeles races.

J. W. Brooks, the manager of the Los Angeles Racing Association, is now in this section of the State, having arrived from Los Angeles yesterday for the purpose of securing entries for the big meet which takes place in Los Angeles from October 10th to 31st. He has met with considerable success while in the North and has interested a large number of owners in the coming meet in the South.

Los Angeles is a grand racing town," said Mr. Brooks, "and the coming meeting will prove to be one of the most successful ever conducted in California. The southern city is filled with Eastern people who will hail with delight such sport as is given at Coney Island, Brighton Beach and Brooklyn. While our purses may not be so large as those distributed at those points, the sport will be fully as clean and as interesting. It should not be forgotten that Eastern sporting men keep a keen eye on California for the simple reason that most of the great horses come from this State."

SNOWSTORM IN WYOMING. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Sept. 15.—A heavy snowstorm has been in progress here since Sunday and shows no indication of abating. A great deal of snow has fallen, but it melts almost as soon as it strikes ground.

From Laramie comes reports of a fall of eighteen inches of snow during the past twenty-four hours. Telephone and electric wires were broken by the weight of the snow, and last night the city was in darkness. Reports from the country state that the grain crop in Albany county has been ruined.

Tonight there will be as fine a program of boxing bouts as was ever seen on the Pacific Coast at the Delta Opera House on the corner of Twelfth and Webster streets under the auspices of the Sequoia Athletic Club, which is giving its first entertainment under the new city ordinance. The officials of the club have been working hard for several weeks past to make this evening's entertainment a success and they certainly have secured a first-class program.

The bouts will all be amateur affairs and of four rounds duration each. Two coast championships are to be decided and as the rules of the Pacific Amateur Association demand that a decision must be rendered and thus precluding a draw, it is safe to say that the evening will be good throughout. Dan Coakley, a prominent member of the West Oakland Club, will referee the bouts and George Simpson, of the same club, and William Rose of the Sequoia Club will act as judges.

The judging of amateur affairs is somewhat different from professional affairs. In the latter the referee is the sole judge of the fight and his decision is final. In amateur affairs there is one judge in each corner and at the conclusion of a bout they hand their decision written on a slip of paper, to the announcer. If both agree on the winner then the announcer informs the spectators of the decision. If they disagree, then the referee is called upon for the final decision.

The main event of this evening's entertainment will be a four-round go between "Roughhouse" Billy McDonald and Al Young for the amateur welter-weight championship of the Pacific Coast. The men will weigh about 145 pounds and will fight the best they know as both are anxious for the decision. They met once before and Young got a very unsatisfactory decision. A special event will be a four-round contest between Dick Cullen and Joe Sweetman at 115 pounds for the bantam championship of the coast. Both are shifty fighters and evenly matched so the spectators may be sure of a good scrap.

The other events are Tom Sullivan vs. Fred Salagna at 12 pounds; Dick Hyland vs. Jack Dunn at 125 pounds; Jack Hughes vs. George Ellis at 128 pounds; Jack Marriarty vs. Joe Podesta at 130 pounds.

In accordance with the rules of the association, the club has the following substitutes: Joe Tobey, Jack Crowe, Barney Driscoll, Ted Wolfe, Tom McCormick, P. Ordway, Joe Carroll, George Murray, Tom McCree and Tom Sears.

The doors will be open at 7:30 p. m. and arrangements have been made for handling a large crowd. The tickets have been on sale at Friedman's cigar store at the corner of Thirteenth and Washington streets and are at the popular price of 50 cents general admission and $1.00 for reserved seats. The bout will be handled by the club officials themselves and J. B. Murphy will be the master of ceremonies.

ANACONDA MINES STARTED. BUTTE, Mont., Sept. 15.—The Anaconda group of mines, which have been closed for two months pending alterations in the big washoe smelter, will resume operations today. The mines employ 3000 men.

The Oakland Elks met the J. H. Woods of Haywards on their diamond last Sunday, and defeated them by a score of 11 to 6. At Beach Dean was winning the game.

On Saturday the Golden Gate Association will open a week's racing at Emeryville race track and have a good program of races for each day. The events will include both running and trotting events and will bring a number of the best performers in the State to face the starter's flag.

Many of the crack runners have already been brought to the track to await the opening of the winter racing under the auspices of the California Jockey Club and many of these are entered in the races for next week. There will probably be five running events and two trotting each day.

A desirable feature of the meet will be the open betting which will be in vogue. It is stipulated by the California Jockey Club that the ring should be left open and that any bookmaker good standing may cut in for two days at a time. They also insist that there should be at least one harness race each day. Horace Egbert was appointed a steward to represent the Jockey Club at the meet.

ELIMINATE NEGRO FROM POLITICS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Memphis, Tenn., says: United States Senator Carmack expressed last night that his purpose in proposing to introduce a bill at the next session of Congress for the repeal of the tenth amendment, thus disfranchising a negro, is simply to open up a discussion which will contribute to a solution of the race problem.

To Senator Carmack's mind the surest way of solving the negro question as it affects the white race, both socially and politically, lies in two negro's elimination from politics. Should the amendment be repealed the question of voting with the negro would be left to the States.

Another view entertained by Senator Carmack is for the separation of the races. But how to proceed, or how long will take, he does not attempt to say. He believes, however, that the races could be better conditioned if they were separated. He believes the black race is a failure, that it owes what little it has achieved to its association with the white race.

As to the enfranchisement of the negro immediately after the war between the States, the Senator regards that as the mistake for which the repeal of the tenth amendment would be only partial reparation.

He will make his initial appearance on Sunday next. The Joaquina will line up as follows: Pitcher, George Liger, catcher, Benovich, first base, Luten, second base, Richard Feige, third base, Lutgen, shortstop, Dean, left field, center field, Ireland, right field, pitcher, extra, Kline.

SENATOR SCOTT IMPROVING. DENVER, Sept. 15.—Senator Nathaniel Scott of West Virginia, who is ill at the Brown Palace Hotel in this city, is reported as slightly improved. Dr. F. S. Owens of Canton, Ohio, who attended the Senator on the train when he was sick, is still with him and says that if the Senator continues on the same operations today, the mines employ 3000 men.

SENATOR SCOTT IMPROVING. DENVER, Sept. 15.—Senator Nathaniel Scott of West Virginia, who is ill at the Brown Palace Hotel in this city, is reported as slightly improved. Dr. F. S. Owens of Canton, Ohio, who attended the Senator on the train when he was sick, is still with him and says that if the Senator continues on the same operations today, the mines employ 3000 men.

One week from tonight Joe Angelli and Jack Cordell will step into the roped arena of the Reliance Athletic Club for a fifteen-round contest at 135 pounds and incidentally determine which is the best man. This has been a mooted question for some time past. They met four times in amateur four-round contests across the bay but were unable to settle the matter definitely. In their last meeting, Angelli was given the decision and Cordell is more than anxious to wipe it out.

Angelli started his hard training yesterday, simultaneously with Eddie Hanlon's commencement of training for his bout with Yanger on the 29th. Angelli and Eddie are great friends and are helping each other to a great extent. They put on the gloves and go at each other as if they had a grudge against one another. This practical work gives them the best kind of training for a hard fight. Hanlon is a past master at the boxing game and consequently Angelli is learning much in every meeting with the featherweight.

Both boys start their day's work with a long spin on the road. It is their favorite exercise for development of the wind. They are out for about two hours and cover from nine to twelve miles at a brisk walk and occasional sprints. They get back to the gymnasium about 11 o'clock and spend the next hour with exercise in the gymnasium. This is followed by a rub-down and lunch. About 3 o'clock in the afternoon they do the gloves for their boxing bouts and go a few fast rounds with each other, supplementing this with a turn at shadow fighting and punching the bag. Their trainer-in-chief, Harry Foley, supervises their work and occasionally dons the gloves with them.

Angelli is in the pink of condition and fit to enter the ring tonight. He is now within a pound or two of the required weight, having come down by easy stages and will be well under the limit by next Tuesday.

Cordell sends good reports from Palo Alto of his condition and says that he will be in the ring next Tuesday in finer condition than he ever was in his life. He has no means underrated his opponent and is training next hour with exercise in the gymnasium. While he knows that Angelli is a hard man to beat, nevertheless he is very confident that he will be the winner. His system of training is very much similar to that of Angelli.

Cordell is nearly half a head taller than Angelli and looks to be the larger man all around, but in reality he is a little lighter if anything. Like Angelli, he is already within easy reaching distance of the weight limit.

The evening's entertainment will open with a four-round contest between "Tanglefoot" McGovern and Jerry Fairbanks, the San Francisco newsboys who have a strong grudge against each other. They will weigh about 115 pounds and will put up a great contest. The second event will be an eight-round go between Young McConnell of the Reliance Club and George Brown of the West Oakland Club. Both are evenly matched and will put up a good fight. They have no particular love for each other and this fact will make the fight all the better. The program will conclude with the main event between Angelli and Cordell.

This week the local baseball team plays a series of six games in Los Angeles with the Los Angeles team, and if they play the class of ball that they have been playing during the past three weeks they should have good luck in the Angels. If they do not take a majority of the games, The Los Angeles team is a strong one and up its present form the Oakland team is a worthy opponent, so that the series should prove to be one of the most hotly contested of the season.

Sacramento will open a week's series with Henry Harris' Stars this afternoon at Golden Gate. The Stars are in very poor shape and it is hard telling how they will come out with the Senators in the next seven games. San Francisco managed to break even with Los Angeles during the last series, much to the surprise of every one. Uncle Henry, indeed, as it was not expected that they would get more than a look in while in their present crippled condition.

Portland and Seattle have both journeyed northward to their own territory and will have each other for opponents for the next six games. After that they will entertain the teams from this State.

His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"B. L. Eyer, a well-known cooper of this town, says: 'My little son, Charles, Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with what the doctors call bilious dysentery, and could get nothing out of him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief.' Says B. T. Little, merchant, Hancock, Md.: 'For sale by Good Bros., Seventh Street and Broadway.'"

NEWS FROM ALAMEDA

HOW WILL THEY GRADUATE

STUDENTS OF HIGH SCHOOL UNCERTAIN AS TO HOW TO END SCHOOL DAYS.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 15.—Yesterday afternoon the graduating class of the Alameda High School met and formulated plans for the entertainment which it is customary for the graduating class to give. The students had planned for a production of the fifteenth century morality play, "Everyman," but were disappointed in procuring it.

Just what resulted from yesterday's meeting can not at present be ascertained, for the reason that today was a holiday. Several different kinds of plays were discussed, but it is probable that a farce would prove more successful than any other kind of entertainment which could be devised.

As the class desires to know as soon as possible how much money they can raise in this manner for the graduating issue of the Acorn, the entertainment will be given in the immediate future.

LECTURE AT WIGWAM.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 15.—Next Thursday evening at the Wigwam, under the auspices of the West End Improvement Association, Dr. J. A. Black will give an address upon the subject, "The Eye, Ear and Throat of Our Children, as Particularly Applied to Those Attending School." This will be the first of a series of entertainments that will be given by the association this season.

TAPPAN LECTURES JAP.

ALAMEDA, Sept. 15.—Judge Tappan suspended sentence this morning on Shuji Tawdoo, the young Jap who was arrested for riding on the sidewalk.

"How old are you, Tawdoo?" said Tappan. In answer the Jap said he thought he was 15.

"Don't you know that is an unlucky age?" The brown boy failed to see Tappan's meaning. "I don't catch on," he said. To further impress upon the Jap what a narrow escape he had had, the judge showed him the prison cells and explained the scanty fare that their inmates received, but the Jap's promise never again to break the law he suspended sentence.

COMPLIMENT TO COMPANY A.

HOW THE VETERAN RESERVES ACTED WHILE IN CAMP.

The following is the official report of the inspection of Company A, Veteran Reserves of this city, made by Colonel Thomas Wilhelm, U. S. A., while the company was in camp near Calistoga this summer:

"Pursuant to instructions, I proceeded on the 23d day of June to Calistoga and on the following day to the camp of Company A, Veteran Reserves, N. G. C. The inspection took place on the morning of June 23 in the camp at Calistoga, one and one-half miles from the town of Calistoga, in the beautiful oak grove by the side of the annual camp of the Veterans of the Civil War, which contained about 250 soldiers, many accompanied by their families.

"The company was commanded by Captain C. R. King, who is an intelligent, enterprising and very attentive officer.

"The camp was laid out according to regulations and consisted of well tented. The tents were well cared for and neatly arranged within.

"The mess was good, the food ample and consisted of much that the market could supply. It was prepared by a professional cook, hired for the purpose. No field or hospital medical officers, men of the sanitary corps, medical supplies for the sick were found with these troops.

"The guard consisted of three posts, and performed duty during the twenty-four hours, as required by the regulations. While inspecting the guard tent I found one man in confinement.

"The arms (Springfield rifles), equipments and clothing were found to be in very good condition.

"The company was called upon to drill in the manual of arms and in various movements fixed by the drill regulations. The company performed duty, drill and step fell a little short. Drill and parade were had each day. Present drill officers, five sergeants, four corporals and thirty-one privates, for percentage of attendance for six months ending June 30, 1903, see accompanying statement, which shows from 66 to 86 per cent.

"The company employed the band of the Seventh Regular United States Infantry, which performed duty during the guard mounting, dress parades and raising and lowering of the flag.

"E. C. Arnold, A. B., was with the company serving as chaplain in the spot work always cherished. He is an ordained minister and veteran soldier.

"It is recommended that if any appropriation can be made available to assist in the expenditures of this camp beyond the allowance already granted, the question be considered in favor of this organization.

"The men were uniformed in blouses, light blue trousers, leggings and campaign hats. They were respectful, attentive and cheerful, and manifested even more than the usual interest in the work of their camp. The comforts of the camp were limited to the usual field equipment of the men sleeping on the ground and seemed to live perfectly oblivious of the great debt the nation owes them."

ERIE ROAD AIDS INDUSTRY.

A GREAT RAILWAY'S METHOD OF BUILDING UP ITS TRAFFIC.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The Erie Railroad Company recently established an industrial department, having for its purpose the further development of the territory traversed by its lines. The company's object is to increase its traffic by stimulating manufacturing and production in its tributary territory. It seeks to increase the number of manufacturing plants in its lines, and to bring the raw material and resources to a greater utility, and thus promote the general prosperity and growth of the towns along the road will be augmented.

The Erie Railroad traverses the States of New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, all comprising a territory rich in resources and enterprise; many of the most important business centers are immediately upon its tracks; it has great local and long distance business, and its lines run through the steel manufacturing districts. Along it are found vast deposits of anthracite and bituminous coal, oil, natural gas—fuel is the basis of many industries—saw pipe, fire and other class, cement, material, building stone and numerous other resources.

This industrial department has had the territory traversed by the Erie distributed in relation to resources, adaptability, markets and advantages for manufacturing, and can advise with manufacturers in relation to the most suitable locations. The information furnished a manufacturer is reliable and has practical bearing on the nature of his particular industry. The company makes the resources and advantages along its line known in order to secure more industries either through the influx of manufacturers already established, or by the creation of new enterprises, and makes the manufactured products of the line known in all markets.

Although established only a short time, the operations of the industrial department have begun to be reflected in the increased traffic and earnings of the line. The business of the towns along the road is increasing. The systematic effort to build up the industries on its system has resulted in a vast improvement in the Erie Company's service, both through and local. The results that have followed the Erie road's experiment are being watched by railroad managers with interest, and other lines are preparing to install similar departments.

plete as ever. As the cynical, blasé Sir Francis Levison Landers Stevens introduces new energy into character, and another lively voice, black mustache villain, his very listlessness and indifference are the strongest features of his performance. By Mae Keane as Lady Isalt, by George Cooper as Mrs. Stevens, and by Carl Berch as Archibald C. Risio, he is accorded support altogether consistent with the ease and smoothness of his performance.

The piece is elaborately and carefully staged and the prices possesses more than ordinary merit.

PLAGUE KILLING PARENTS FIGHT SQUIRRELS.

THOUSANDS OF CONTRA COSTA RODENTS DYING FROM DISEASE.

MARTINEZ, Sept. 15.—Some curious disease is killing the squirrels by the thousands in the southern portion of Contra Costa county. In a region where the squirrels have been the greatest pest the farmers have had to encounter the rodents are threatened with extermination.

The plague among the squirrels is something new, but it is so thorough an exterminator that the Supervisors at their meeting yesterday decided that it was a good thing to propagate and spread. Supervisors Stow and Torrey were appointed a committee to confer with the officers of the State University with a view to ascertaining the best means of inoculating squirrels in other localities with the plague virus.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—The agreement reached between Minister Chen at Peking and Prince Ching that the port to be opened on the Yalu river shall be Yang Tung instead of Ta Tung has the approval of the State Department.

MOTHER HAS HUSBAND AND HIS EMPLOYER ARRESTED FOR BATTERY.

Lucy Moore of East Oakland, the wife of William Moore, an employee of Smith's clothing store at Tenth and Washington streets, had her husband and Charles Sinclair, the manager of the store, arrested yesterday on the charge of battery. T. W. Slogrove and Mr. Wishart appeared as bondsmen for both in the sum of $100 and the accused were released.

Mrs. Moore has sued her husband for divorce and the cause is now pending in the Superior Court. Saturday afternoon she took her little boy into the store where her husband is employed to get a hat for him. The couple got into an altercation over the possession of the boy when the decree should be granted. Sinclair as manager of the store tried to stop the disturbance and told Mr. and Mrs. Moore they would have to settle their differences outside. Each grabbed the child and Mr. Sinclair separated them.

Beside another skeleton we found a large snail shell only half buried in the sand which goes to show that this ancient people either fished on commerce with some coast nation or traveled inland themselves. In some cases little piles of burnt human bones were found on the breasts of the skeletons, indicating human sacrifices to persons of higher rank.

Murphy was on the witness stand when he made the assertion that he was guilty himself but that the two Kellys are innocent.

The City Council sat as the Board of Equalization for the Adeline Sanitary District last night.

Councilman Dornin was chosen president of the Board and Councilman Bacous was selected as secretary.

There were no applications filed for altering of assessment and the following resolution was read, and on suspension of rules the same was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The City Council of the City of Oakland, acting ex-officio as a Board of Equalization of the Adeline Sanitary District for the year 1903, sat as such Board of Equalization on Monday, September 14, 1903, pursuant to notice duly given thereof.

Resolved, That the secretary of this Board forthwith enter upon said assessment list all changes and corrections therein, and all rectifications thereof, made or so ordered by this Board, and that he affix an affidavit to said list.

HUNTED DOWN BY AN ANGRY CROWD.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Armed with a double-barreled shotgun and accompanied by a ferocious bulldog, George Willingmyer kept at bay a score of policemen and several hundred citizens, who surrounded him in a swamp near Camden, N. J.

Willingmyer refused to leave his dog upon some boys who were teasing him. A crowd gathered and taunted him. Finally he fired twice, it is claimed. He aimed low and a dozen men and women were wounded in the legs by the pellets. No one was dangerously hurt, but the crowd took after Willingmyer and chased him to a swamp outside the city. He found an old wagon mired there and with his dog held the fort against the police and a thousand angry men who wanted to starve him out. Fires were built around the morass and a cordon was formed, but Willingmyer managed to elude the watchers and escaped on a train.

Miss Gannon, Sec'y Detroit Amateur Art Association, tells young women what to do to avoid pain and suffering caused by female troubles.

"I can conscientiously recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to those of my sisters suffering with female weakness and the troubles which so often beset women. I suffered for months with general weakness and felt so weary that I had hard work to keep up. I had shooting pains and was utterly miserable. In my distress I was advised to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it was a red letter day to me when I took the first dose, for at that time my restoration began. In six weeks I was a changed woman, perfectly well in every respect. I felt so elated and happy that I want all women who suffer to get well as I did."

Miss GULIA GANNON, 359 Jones St., Detroit, Corresponding Sec'y Mich. Amateur Art Association. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

It is clearly shown in this young lady's letter that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will surely cure the sufferings of women; and when one considers that Miss Gannon's letter is only one of hundreds which we have, the great virtue of Mrs. Pinkham's medicine must be admitted by all.

TAX LEVY LAID OVER A WEEK.

OWING TO ACTION OF STATE EQUALIZERS MATTER IS IN DOUBT.

The ordinance providing for fixing tax levy was laid over until next Monday night because of the action taken by the State Board of Equalization in raising the assessment of the county, and because the Council is desirous of receiving an opinion from the City Attorney upon the subject, which was not ready for presentation at this meeting. If the raise in assessment stands it will increase the valuation for the city $10,000,000, and allow about $100,000 more for expenditure by the Council at the present rate of $1,257, or, on the other hand, permit the levy to be reduced to about $1, and raise the same amount as now provided for on present valuation by the Assessor.

CITY WILL LEASE WHARVES.

APPLICATIONS OF JAMES P. TAYLOR AND DIMOND COMPANY FAVORABLY CONSIDERED.

The application of James P. Taylor and the Dimond Freight Company for a lease from the City of Oakland of the Franklin street pier for a term of five years, coming up before the Board, the following discussion ensued:

Councillor—I think this Council is going further than the life of this body. Once more I want to protest against the farming out of the city's property.

I would like to know who the father of this five-year idea is?

Professor Wallace states that he believes that he would have to stand sponsor for it.

Councillor Elliott spoke up and said that while he was not the father of it he had adopted it as a beautiful and bright child.

Councillor—Well, I am opposed to farming out the wharves. If people believe it is worth $100 a month it may be worth more.

Messrs—I certainly want the city to get the most out of the wharves. The city may want to try to keep the city's property for five years.

President Dornin was glad someone had last discovered the leases were valuable, and this Board was simply following out the action of the State Board of Harbor Commissioners.

Councillor thought it was wrong to tie up the property for five years, and he felt compelled to differ from those of his colleagues who favored the proposition.

Mr. Greer, City Wharfman, in response to Councilman Elliott, said the city received $100 a month from the wharf last month. The highest amount received from the Dimond Company was $70 per month. Neither company has paid any rent on the wharves since the wharf last month. The wharfman has paid $1,000 per year.

Elliott favored the proposition because the city would get more than it was now getting by granting this lease for three or five years. He was anxious to have the Council go on record as favoring or opposing it, and this debt-ridden city to the amount mentioned. If there are any bugs in this proposition he would like to see them picked out and he would oppose them, but if not he would like to see the members of the Council get like business men.

The president said the proposition provided simply for the leasing of the wharves, and that the city would receive $100 a month for the use of the wharves. Wallace—It seems to me that this five-year lease is not such a bad idea. We have another way of getting the wharves for two years as they will for a five-year lease.

Councilman McAdam went to know if Mr. Taylor would give $100 per month for a short term, and Councilman Wallace thought not.

Councilman Messer thought two years was long enough, and that of course a bidder would like to have it for as long a term as possible, and moved to amend the resolution to "eighteen months."

Lost. Messrs—Aldrich, Bacous, Elliott, McAdam, Messer, Dornin, Greer, Councillor, Wallace, and others.

The resolution is amended by Elliott, was then adopted by the following vote:

Ayes—Aldrich, Bacous, Elliott, McAdam, Messer, Dornin, Greer, Councillor, Wallace, and others.

MUCH WORK NOW ON HAND.

EMPLOYEES AT WEST OAKLAND ARE KEPT RUSHING WITH WORK.

The importance of the West Oakland shops as a factor in the extensive heavy repair work, continually being done by the Southern Pacific Company, is daily becoming more and more evident.

There is now scarcely over a 2500 shop but it has to be done at Sacramento, five engines are now in the local shops getting new fire boxes, on a new frame, another new boiler and still another a dome and part of a shell. Driving axles, pins and lever additional axles and pins are being made. The daily increasing business has made a noticeable shortage of power and time to handle it, but the fact remains that with more shops at West Oakland, and more adequate facilities for handling it.

NEW ROUND HOUSE WILL BE WELCOMED BY MACHINISTS.

Machinists whose duties confine them to the round house are looking forward eagerly to the completion of the new round house, hoping that it may be finished before the winter rains set in. Excavating for the new seventy foot turn table, which is to rest upon a concrete foundation, is slowly progressing. The new round house will be an improvement on the old one in every way.

TWO RIVER BOATS BREAK SHAFTS WITHIN A WEEK.

No sooner had the Modoc been fitted up with a new wheel shaft than the sister boat, the Apache, suffered an accident similar to the one that rendered the Modoc's repairs necessary. The shaft of the Apache was broken. The broken shaft of the Modoc is now at the ship yards and a new one will be procured immediately from Sacramento for the Apache.

MACHINISTS DISCOVER THAT FUEL OIL HAS DRAWBACKS.

One serious objection to crude oil as a locomotive fuel is the fact that it gives off inflammable gases which makes it absolutely imperative that the tanks be cleaned and scrubbed thoroughly before a hot rivet or a torch can be used in them. The process of scrubbing or "scouring" takes often as long as forty-eight hours.

CUTS AND JARS RECEIVED DURING THE DAY'S WORK.

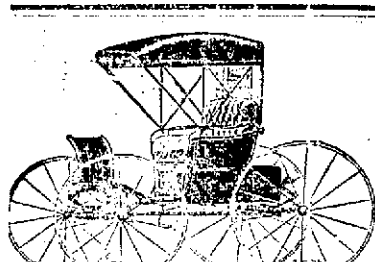

W. Sims, boiler maker, sustained a severe scalp cut yesterday morning while working in the tank shop. His injuries were treated by "Doc" Mutt. George Harris cut his left hand badly Sunday while helping to remove the broken wheel shaft from the Modoc. He hit his hand a hard blow with a chisel and the wound bled quite freely.

SEEN AND HEARD ABOUT THE YARD AND SHOPS.

William Creigh, one of the Western Division engineers, temporarily assigned to Salt Lake Division, has returned to this city on a short vacation. Creigh brings word from the twelve other Western Division men to the effect that all are getting along nicely and making big time. Part of them will probably be released after the completion of the 15th cut-off, which will require about three more months.

John Marshall and George Wethe are expected soon at the ship yards to begin looking. J. R. Drusell, master mechanic of the California and North Western, paid a visit to the shops yesterday. Mr. Drusell expects that his company is expected to have some of the large Baltimore type engines from the East soon. They have been purchasing several second-hand locomotives recently.

E. Mollins has resumed work as a machinist after several weeks absence. Eugene L. Smith, who was a machinist at the shops, is now in the yard, working on the 15th cut-off, which will be ready for a test trip by the end of the week.

WHY MESSAGES WERE NOT DELIVERED.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Dr. Herran, the Colombian Charge d' Affairs, has received a dispatch from the Minister of Posts and Telegraphs in Bogota, in response to the inquiry into the reported failure of United States Minister Beaupre to receive certain dispatches sent to him by the State Department between July 24th and August 15th. Secretary Hay had called Dr. Herran's attention to the incident and the latter promptly cabled his government about it. The reply of the Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, Dr. Herran says, accounts for the reception by Mr. Beaupre of all the dispatches sent to him by the State Department at Washington, they being delivered to him immediately on their receipt by the telegraph company at Bogota. The Minister of Posts and Telegraphs communicated with the telegraph company having charge of the business before making his reply. One dispatch, however, apparently is unaccounted for, but Dr. Herran thinks that this is due to confusion in dates of receipt and delivery.

There was a suspension of business for several weeks during the summer by the cable company which handles the dispatches for Colombia along the Central and South American coasts and Dr. Herran believes that the delay there may have been in forwarding dispatches after they reached Rueda Ventura was due to the confusion incident to the accumulation of messages when business was resumed.

WEDDED UNDER WAVING PALMS.

Miss Anne Apperson Becomes Bride of Dr. Marshall Flint in Home of Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, Hacienda del Poso de Verona, Pleasanton.

COUNTRY HOME OF MRS. PHOEBE HEARST.

The above is a picture of the Hacienda del Poso de Verona, the suburban, palatial home of Mrs. Phoebe Hearst at Pleasanton. On the extreme left of the cluster of structures, all of which are of Spanish design, is shown the Music Hall, in which today Miss Apperson, the niece of Mrs. Hearst, became the bride of Dr. Marshall Flint.

As elaborate and beautiful a wedding as ever took place in California was that which today united in wedlock Miss Anne Apperson and Dr. Marshall Flint.

The bride is the niece of Mrs. Phoebe Hearst, the benefactress of the University of California and of everything which tends to the uplifting of humanity, and it was in the home of Mrs. Hearst that the marriage was solemnized.

The betrothal and the marriage took place in the music hall of Mrs. Hearst's country residence, known as Hacienda del Poso de Verona, near Pleasanton, in this county.

EVERYTHING COMPLETE.

There was nothing lacking to make the scene impressive and there was everything present to make the occasion life-long and gratefully in the memory of the principals and those who witnessed it.

DAYS OF WORK.

The hacienda and the rare and costly furnishings are in themselves marvels of beauty, yet no care nor expense had been spared to add to the effect.

For days past carpenters had been busy constructing the altar and chancel in the music room, and erecting a pale blue canopy in the patio, beneath which the breakfast was served after the nuptial feast.

MUSIC ROOM CHAPEL.

The music room, which is filled with the choicest art treasures in the way of antique carved cabinets, priceless bronzes, rare paintings, hangings of costly old tapestries and other objects of equal interest, was transformed into a chapel for the occasion.

Beneath the front of the gallery, across one end of the room, was located the chancel, covered with rose-colored velvet carpet, and separated from the room by a handsome brass rail.

An altar six feet wide was built and draped with an altar cloth of the finest silver cloth, embroidered in gold and silver thread and many-hued silks.

NOTED PAINTING.

On this altar at the time of the ceremony burned a number of candles in antique brass candelabra, and between them were vases of the exquisite pink and white tiger lilies, which were also disposed of to advantage in many parts of the room.

Back of the altar was a large painting of the Holy Family.

Great baskets of the dainty pink and white flowers and asparagus ferns were suspended from the heavy rafters, and garlands were festooned from point to point.

FLORAL RICHNESS.

An aisle was formed of these blossoms through the middle of the room.

The wedding breakfast was served in the patio or court of the Hacienda, from which could be enjoyed a view of the broad stretch of valley beneath, spreading away to the mist-veiled mountains that bulwark the base of old Diablo.

The guests. It was a distinguished company that sat down at the great round table beneath the azure canopy. Some of these guests were from the colleges of Berkeley, members of the University faculty and representatives of the alumni of that institution, relatives and personal friends of the contracting parties and of Mrs. Hearst and, more than all, William Randolph Hearst, son of the hostess, the most energetic newspaper publisher in America, member of Congress from New York and now the only avowed candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Presidency in the country.

The center of the court had been covered with a tent-like canopy of intense blue. The table, covered with the whitest of damask, was built around the well of Verona from which the Hacienda derives its name. Over the well was constructed the bride's table, at which were seated Dr. and Mrs. Flint, Hon. and Mrs. William Randolph Hearst, Mrs. Phoebe Hearst and the bridal party.

Banked against the inner edge of the guests' table and sloping to the grass plot was a solid curtain of greenery surmounted by flowers, the intervals being filled with ferns.

At the close of the dinner the bride and groom departed on their wedding tour.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—What is regarded as one of the final steps in the direction of merging the prominent grocery houses in Ohio has been taken, according to the Journal of Commerce, through the incorporation in New Jersey of the Ohio Grocery Company, with a capital of $11,250,000, of which $5,000,000 is six per cent.

The incorporators are Lewis B. Dely, Joseph Mitchell and B. E. Lewis. The principal promoters of the new enterprise are F. C. and M. N. Letts of Chicago, and George Bundy of Grand Rapids, Mich.

It is claimed the combination will include more than 25 per cent of the prominent Ohio wholesale firms. The promoters say they will soon meet with Indiana wholesale grocers, whose stock has been optioned and merge from sixteen to eighteen grocery companies. Illinois will later be entered and later New York. Eventually, it is planned that the big companies in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Canada shall be merged.

The offices of the company will be in Toledo, where most of the goods purchased will be shipped for distribution among the stores.

Among the Ohio concerns said to have agreed upon entering the new company are: Wheeler-Stevens Company, J. H. Harper, Zanesville; Doel and Snell Company, Toledo; Penrose and Simpson, Marietta; Weaver & Son, Circleville; Johnson Company, Bellefontaine; J. H. Bonstiff Company, Hamilton; Tollinger Company, Piquette; Ika Reider & Co., Akron; Woodward, Sandusky; Nash & Devore, New Philadelphia; Alliance Company, Alliance; Meager & Co., Marion; V. T. Hills Company, Delaware.

H. C. Capwell of the Lace House has just returned from an extended trip through the East upon business and pleasure, accompanied by his family, during which he visited New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Niagara Falls, Detroit, Chicago and other cities of importance.

Mrs. Capwell and the children will remain East another month, visiting friends in Michigan, Indiana and Ohio.

WEATHER ABROAD.

Mr. Capwell says he returns to Oakland this time a little less pleased to get home than he has been upon previous occasions, partly because of the beautiful weather he found while absent and the splendid condition of the country and partly because he does not find his loved ones here waiting to welcome him.

GOOD TIMES WILL CONTINUE.

He says there is no reason why a business man should have any apprehension for the future of trade conditions for some time to come, at least, as everything now points to a season of almost unexampled prosperity in almost every section of the country, the few exceptions being widely separated and dependent upon local surroundings. The only element of general uncertainty affecting the business world, so far as his observation informed him, was a feeling that the coming Congress might attempt legislation which would be a calamity, instead of giving greater elasticity, the tendency would be to the withdrawal of money from circulation and the hoarding of it by those who count their capital closely before expending it. Yet, he believes the influence of the press, which is daily opposing all over the country the enactment of any measure affecting the circulating medium will prevent action of this kind by the law-making power.

TOO MUCH LIFTING.

Speaking generally of Oakland, Mr. Capwell says he can only make the same comment that he has often done before, that its people seem to be too well satisfied with themselves and their surroundings and are too disposed to drift with the natural course of events instead of waking up and doing something.

Back East, he says, the people in their corporate capacity act as the pushing, energetic, successful business men do in their private affairs. He decides what will better their condition and then go ahead and get it, even if they do have to anticipate their income for a short time.

THEORY VS. PRACTICE.

What Oakland needs is less theory and more practice—not only a realization of its situation and its possibilities, but a determination that others shall become acquainted with them and be attracted hither.

STORE CAPACITY DOUBLED.

To show that the house whose representative he is believes in the ideas he advances it is only necessary to add that it will more than double its present capacity after the first of January, and Mr. Capwell's trip was taken mainly for the purpose of making observations and absorbing ideas that he could apply when the proposed enlargement is made, which has been rendered necessary by the splendid appreciation shown his house by the people of Oakland, which he attributes largely to the judicious use of advertising space and the keeping of faith with the people in the fulfillment of all promises.

ELKS AS CIVIC MISSIONARIES.

Mr. Capwell went East with the local delegation to the Grand Lodge of Elks held at Baltimore, and expresses the opinion that the members of the grand lodge as well as the residents of Baltimore and adjacent territory, know a great deal more about this beautiful city and its possibilities than they did before the Oakland representatives arrived there to enlighten them. Mr. Capwell, who is exalted ruler of the local lodge of Elks, says he is happy to know that he has returned in time to participate in the dedication of the beautiful home erected by that body, and that he is very grateful to his brethren for having postponed the dedicatory exercises so that he could have a part in them.

GROCERY COMBINE IN OHIO.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—What is regarded as one of the final steps in the direction of merging the prominent grocery houses in Ohio has been taken, according to the Journal of Commerce, through the incorporation in New Jersey of the Ohio Grocery Company, with a capital of $11,250,000, of which $5,000,000 is six per cent.

The incorporators are Lewis B. Dely, Joseph Mitchell and B. E. Lewis. The principal promoters of the new enterprise are F. C. and M. N. Letts of Chicago, and George Bundy of Grand Rapids, Mich.

It is claimed the combination will include more than 25 per cent of the prominent Ohio wholesale firms. The promoters say they will soon meet with Indiana wholesale grocers, whose stock has been optioned and merge from sixteen to eighteen grocery companies. Illinois will later be entered and later New York. Eventually, it is planned that the big companies in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan and Canada shall be merged.

The offices of the company will be in Toledo, where most of the goods purchased will be shipped for distribution among the stores.

Among the Ohio concerns said to have agreed upon entering the new company are: Wheeler-Stevens Company, J. H. Harper, Zanesville; Doel and Snell Company, Toledo; Penrose and Simpson, Marietta; Weaver & Son, Circleville; Johnson Company, Bellefontaine; J. H. Bonstiff Company, Hamilton; Tollinger Company, Piquette; Ika Reider & Co., Akron; Woodward, Sandusky; Nash & Devore, New Philadelphia; Alliance Company, Alliance; Meager & Co., Marion; V. T. Hills Company, Delaware.

At the meeting of the vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church held last evening, a unanimous call was extended to Rev. Charles Thomas Walkley, assistant rector of Grace Church, New York City, and formerly rector at Palmyra, N. Y., to become rector of St. Paul's.

It is not known whether he or not Rev. Walkley will accept, but the vestrymen entertain strong hopes that he will do so.

Splendid reports have been received relative to his ability as a scholar and eloquence. He has been assigned to Rev. Dr. Huntington of Grace Church, in New York City, for the last four years, and as the latter stands high among the Episcopalian pastors of America, it is felt that his assistant must be endowed with more than average ability to remain so long in such eminent company.

Rev. Walkley is a married man. Since Rev. Robert Ritchie died, on December 21st of last year, St. Paul's congregation has had to rely upon Rev. James Hulme, the assistant rector.

HEMENOVER CASE DISMISSED.

The old case against Albert Hemenover came up this morning in its regular monthly course and was finally dismissed from the calendar.

Some months ago Hemenover and two other youthful companions stole three horses from a local riding academy and rode them over into Contra Costa county. They were captured and brought back for trial. The two companions were sent to the State Prison for their participation, while Hemenover was released on his own recognizance on promise of good behavior, and since then he has been so exemplary that he earned his dismissal this morning.

Investigated and after due deliberation, have taken action.

Of course, some point may be discovered upon which their action can be attacked, but my idea is, without having looked the matter up, that it will have to stand.

"I know that some years ago the coroner had been charging fees for holding inquests without a jury.

"The matter was called to the attention of the Grand Jury and action was begun in the courts to recover the fees.

"It was taken to the Supreme Court and that tribunal held that the Board of Supervisors had paid these claims and it could not go behind their action in the premises.

"This is just to illustrate the point that the Supreme Court does not like to review the action of a Board given certain powers by the Constitution. Still, as I say, until it is looked into I cannot say."

"The members are supposed to have

BERKELEY, Sept. 15.—Three engagements of unusual interest in college circles have been announced.

At a party given last evening at the Alpha Phi sorority house the betrothal of Miss Ada Catherine Stone of the class of 1905 and Professor Robert Sibley of the class of 1903 was made public for the first time. The groom-to-be departed this morning for Missoula, Montana, where he goes to take up his duties as head of the department of mechanical and electrical engineering of the University of Montana. Both young people have been unusually prominent in student circles. Miss Stone is a member of the Alpha Phi sorority and Sibley is a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity.

A tea given last evening by Professor and Mrs. Wells to the Alpha Phi sorority the engagement of Leslie M. Turner of the class of 1903 and Miss Katherine Foreman, Smith of the class of 1904 was announced.

BATTERY CASE CONTINUED.

The case of B. F. McElroy, arrested for battery on complaint of Julius Ulrich, was continued to October 2 to file complaint. This case grew out of trouble over a shuffleboard game. Ulrich alleging that McElroy met him on the street some hours after the original wordy discussion had ended and renewed the matter, finally falling upon him and beating him, for which cause he wants the latter punished.
